8. a. The Father of all Creatures was going to give a 'special present' to Mother Kangaroo.
- b. The present was given to repay Mother Kangaroo for her kindness.
- c. It was a pouch.

B. (Accept any relevant response.) (Suggestions)

Mother Kangaroo thanked the Father of all Creatures for the present. However, she felt sad for the other creatures who could not keep their children safe. So the Father of all Creatures gave a bark from a tree to Mother Kangaroo. Mother Kangaroo passed on the bark to her friends. And so because of Mother Kangaroo's kindness, all marsupials have a pouch.

C. JOEY – energetic, naughty, bored

WOMBAT – old, grumbling, grouchy

MOTHER KANGAROO – loving, kind, helpful

P. 71-73

- A. 1. Birbal was a clever minister in the court of emperor Akbar.
2. Akbar wanted to test the strength of the common man in his kingdom. He wanted to find out if any man could stand in the cold water of the river for a whole night.

3. The drummer announced to the people that anyone who could stand in the river for one night near the palace would be richly rewarded.
4. A poor washerman won the test set by Akbar.
5. Akbar did not reward the man at first because a courtier told him that the water was not really cold because the lights from the palace kept it warm.
6. Birbal lit a fire on the ground. Far above it, on a branch of a tree, he placed a cooking pot. He told Akbar that he was warming his pot to cook food. Akbar asked how the fire could warm his cooking pot from such a distance, to which Birbal replied that it did so in the same way as the lights of the palace warmed the river water. Hearing this, Akbar realised his mistake.
